In May 1952 the Public Security Ministry issued a secret order intended to strengthen local order and to concentrate its police power. It stated that police personnel who had been carried over from the Nationalist regime should be gradually discharged. They will be replaced by Communist-trained personnel. The discharged officers will be sent to Kuantien (124-46, 40-46) to receive training, after which they will be sent to North Korea. The Public Security Ministry has received reports which indicate that over 10,000 men have already been sent to the northeast.
